ANNOUNCEMENT

1st Legal Aspects of Information Operations Course (5F-F44) 26-30 June 2006 The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School

Scope: This course focuses on the evolving role of Judge Advocates in information operations (IO). Topics to be addressed will include: doctrine and objectives of IO at the strategic, operational, and tactical levels; IO as a use of force under international law; application of targeting principles and the law of war to IO; IO rules of engagement; intelligence law aspects of IO; and applicable foreign and domestic law affecting IO. Discussions of recent information operations campaigns and the legal issues associated with those campaigns will offer attendees practical insight for dealing with IO issues in future operations.

Prerequisites: Military attorneys and U.S. Government civilian attorneys serving in or pending assignment to a position that requires knowledge of information operations. Prior attendance at the Law of War Course (5F-F42), the Judge Advocate Officer Basic Course (5-27-C20), or service equivalent is required. Permission to attend by exception to these prerequisites must be obtained from the Chair of the International and Operational Law Department. This course requires a SECRET security clearance, confirmation of which must be received by the School before the course begins. Security clearances must be confirmed in writing by the sending unit's security manager.
